

Traditional Tamil Folk Arts and Dance Extravaganza

'Avalu Kalaikuzhu' in collaboration with Hindu 'Temple of Delaware Cultural Center' and 'Council of Indian Organizations' is very happy to present show named "Kalaigalin Sangamam 2019" (meaning, a reunion of all Traditional Arts). More than seventeen Artists from Tamil Nadu, India are on a tour to the USA to showcase and perform the Traditional Tamil Folk Music and Dances. It is a rare event that happens once in a life time to see all these artists (some "Kalaimamani" Awardees, a prestigious Award by the Government of Tamil Nadu) performing various ancient arts forms on the same stage in the USA! This elite troupe is here in the US only for two weeks on a special travel sponsored by the Tamil Nadu Government. We feel privileged and lucky to get them to PA-Delaware Valley for this one evening on February 1st (Friday), 2019. It is a fantastic opportunity for all the kids to see all Tamil traditional instruments and Tamil traditional dances performed live by the exponents. Much more, the admission to this event is FREE. During this Tamil traditional Festival of Pongal season, it is even more appropriate to participate, enjoy and benefit from this event. It is a boost to our culture and a great learning experience for our children. Please gather in large numbers and welcome these Traditional and Exceptional Artists from Tamil Nadu and show them our support and well wishes!!

All of you are cordially invited with Families, friends, neighbors and co-workers! Please RSVP by clicking on the link below. The admission is free but you have to register for seat limit restriction. Food is available at the Temple cafeteria at nominal cost.
